48. Certificates for examination of Records for literary purposes were granted to the number of 241. Under these, 5,503 Records or Volumes or files of Records were produced for literary readers.

Arrangement and Preservation of Records.

49. The examination and arrangement of the contents of the miscellaneous sacks received from the former Landed Estates Record Office, Custom House, has been continued. The contents of eighteen sacks have been examined and arranged during last year.

50. The Miscellaneous Records from the Rolls Office have been examined and catalogued.

51. One hundred and fifty-five parcels of Bills of the Equity side of the Court of Exchequer, from 9 May, 1711, to 18 June, 1772; and 184 parcels of Answers, 17 July, 1712, to 24 December, 1724, have been checked, arranged, and parcelled. The checking and numbering of the Decrees of same court have been completed to 1843, in 126 portfolios.

52. The Warrants of Attorney from the Court of King's Bench 1720 to 1823, were in progress of being stamped and arranged. Seventeen bundles of Landed Estates Court copy Conveyances, commencing 1850, have been checked and numbered. The Crown and Peace Office Records of the several counties received during the year have been classified, arranged, stamped, and catalogued. The increment of Wills and Testamentary and Administration papers has been checked, arranged, and stamped. One hundred and thirty-three parcels of Inventions patent, 1904-5, were arranged and stamped. Twenty bundles of Insolvent petitions, and 931 bundles miscellaneous pleadings of the court of King's Bench have been stamped.

53. One hundred volumes of Records have been bound. Fourteen Patent Rolls, and 34 other Records were repaired.

Indexing and Calendaring.

54. The revision of the Catalogues of Records undertaken with ^{xxxviii.,} a view to the preparation of material for a general guide to the ^{par. 62.} Records has been continued by Mr. Wood for the Records of the Courts of Equity.

55. The Calendar of Inquisitions for county Limerick has been ^{xxxviii.,} continued by Mr. MacEnery, and is advanced to nearly the end ^{par. 63.} of the reign of Elizabeth.

56. The Index of British Departmental Correspondence, 1741-59, has been completed, and made available in the Search Room. An Index has been made to Proctor's Copies of Schedules, Court of Delegates, 1819-62. Indexes have been made to, and inserted in Cloyne Diocesan Register, 1683-1705, and Court of Appeal Order Book, 1881-3. A Catalogue of the Vice-Treasurer's Records has been made.

57. The Index to Chancery Side Bar Orders, 1858-1875, has been continued to Vol. 13 (New Series). An Index to Chancery Orders 1840-56, has been commenced and prepared in draft for vols. 296 to 303, and 373 to 422. The Index to Disentailing Deeds enrolled has been continued to 1885.

Printing of Calendars, Indexes, and Records.

58. The first volume of the Calendar of the Justiciary Rolls of Ireland was issued in June. About half of the second volume was in the printer's hands at the end of the year, and six sheets were in type. The first volume of the Statutes was almost completed at press at the end of 1906.

App.

59. A further section of the Catalogue of Accounts entered on the Pipe Rolls of the Exchequer of Ireland, prepared by Mr. MacEnery, is printed in the Appendix to this Report, carrying the Catalogue down to the tenth year of Edward II.

60. An examination of the bundles of printed matter left by Record Commissioners shows that a considerable number of further copies of the Chancery Inquisitions of Ulster and Leinster printed for the Commissioners, and supposed to be out of print, remain in sheets, and could be made ready for publication.

Proceedings under Parochial Records Acts.

61. The Registers of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials of five parishes became attachable under 38 & 39 Vic., c. 59, by death or resignation of incumbents in office in 1870; and warrants were signed by the Master of the Rolls for their transfer to this office. A warrant for transfer was also issued in one other case (Shrule) where the records remained in local custody under a Retention Order, but where the provision for the safety of the Records had become unsatisfactory.

62. The Records of the following Parishes have been received:—

Parish.	County.	Vols.	Baptisms.	Marriages.	Burials.
Carrigallen, ...	Leitrim, ...	4	1804-1883	1804-1845	1804-1874
Castlemagner, ...	Cork, ...	3	1810-1905	1809-1844	1809-1906
Dromiskin, ...	Louth, ...	loose sheets	1791-2	—	—
Shrule, ...	Longford, ...	3	1727-1882	1727-1846	1795-1904
Tibohine, ...	Roscommon, ...	2	1800-1905	1795-1857	1811-1905
Tullagh, ...	Cork, ...	2	1796-1905	1802-1845	1803-1903

63. Orders for the retention of the Records in local custody under 39 & 40 Vic., c. 58, have been made in the cases of Carnmoney and St. Michael, Blackrock, co. Cork. The number of such Orders made by the Master of the Rolls is now 616, of which 584 were in force at the end of 1906. Annual Reports under the 6th section of this Act have been duly received from the clergymen of the respective parishes.

64. Books of the following parishes—the custody of which remain with the Incumbents—have been re-bound in this office :—Ballycanew (2 vols.), Dernakesh (Drumgoon), Lismore (2 vols.), Rathdrum (2 vols.), S. Canice, Kilkenny.

65. I regret to have to report that in two of the parishes, to the incumbents of which the care of the Parish Records has been committed by Retention Orders, it has been found that books formerly in their custody, and specified in the Orders, have disappeared. The parishes are Aghalee and Dundalk. In each case two volumes are not now forthcoming, and such enquiries as I have been able to set on foot have failed to elicit any information in regard to them. In one other case, a book was reported as missing, but was found on representation made from this Office.

66. These two instances bring up to six the number of parishes in which within the last nine years it has been found that books committed to the Parish Safe a few years ago are no longer known to exist. In several other cases, books said not to be found have been recovered on representations from this Office. In all these cases reports have been duly made by the incumbents year after year that the Records were safe and in good order. And it has only been on the appointment of a new incumbent, or on some chance enquiry, that it has been possible to discover the loss. In addition to this gradual loss of the books, many of the safes, especially those in damp vestries are undergoing steady deterioration. In five cases during the same period of nine years, the safes have become so bad that the Orders have been withdrawn, and the Records brought up to this Office. In four other cases the incumbents have been wise enough voluntarily to deposit the books here. But in a large number of other cases, it is feared that either the safe is ceasing to be in good order, and that the books are becoming seriously deteriorated by the damp condition in which they are kept.

State Paper Office.

67. The Government Papers received during the year 1906 included the Chief Secretary's Office registered papers for 1896, and Registers and Index for 1894; 136 volumes of Letter and Account Books; and 59 bundles of miscellaneous papers.

68. The Registered Papers have been checked and put up in cartons 4118 to 4157. The Miscellaneous Papers have been examined, arranged, and deposited.

69. The available shelf space having become filled, additional iron fittings have been erected by His Majesty's Commissioners of Works in Rooms I., III., and IV., to contain 200 cartons and about 60 books.

70. The searches for Government Departments during the year numbered 662, the largest number (with one exception) registered in any one year.

Rep. IV.,
p. 24-5,
xxxviii.,
par. 76.

71. The Calendar of Official Papers, 1790 to 1831, forming the later part of the Collection referred to in Sir Bernard Burke's Fourth Report, under the title of "Miscellaneous State Papers," has been carried forward from carton 298 to 337 (heading "Fisheries.")

xxxviii.,
par. 76.

72. The General Catalogue of the contents of the Tower, referred to in last Report, has been completed for the books and parcels of unregistered papers in Rooms I., IV., and (in part) VI., and VII.

All which is humbly submitted to your Excellency as my Report.

Dated at the Public Record Office, Dublin, this 21st day of August, 1907.

JAMES MILLS,
Deputy Keeper of the Records and Keeper of the State Papers in Ireland.

I humbly certify to your Excellency that this Report is made by the Deputy Keeper of the Records, under my direction, pursuant to the Statute.

R. E. MEREDITH, M.R.
